

Overview	The DTE Energy Farm is dedicated to providing fresh, local fruits and vegetables to our community's hungry people. Through the combined efforts of Gleaners Community Food Bank, DTE Energy, and dedicated volunteers, the DTE Energy Farm works to fill that gap. The farm is divided into nine gardens throughout southeast Michigan
Primary Goal/Mission	Providing fresh, healthy produce to hungry people
Programs/Campaigns	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • DTE Energy Farm Project <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Nine gardens on 4 acres devoted to feeding the hungry ○ Farmed by volunteers
Impact	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The gardens produce over 23,000 pounds of fresh produce, which is turned over to Gleaners and the various food pantries it serves in the metro Detroit area. • 400+ volunteers work in the gardens
Reports/Case Studies	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Featured in Partnership for Prevention: "Creating Healthy Communities through Corporate Engagement." http://www.prevent.org/initiatives/leading-by-example.aspx
Social Media Sites	https://www.facebook.com/DteEnergyGardens?fref=ts
Website and Contact Information	http://www.gcfb.org/site/PageServer?pagename=pg_volunteer_dteenergygarden Anthony F. Earley, Jr. Chairman and CEO Kate Long Phone: (734) 545-2758 Email: dteenergyfarmproject@gcfb.org .